WILLIAMS

Dwight is a Newark resident and a graduate of Harrison High School. She has attended Virginia State College and Essex County College. Presently working as Executive Secretary to the Essex County Democratic Chairman, she has consistently demonstrated her interest in working to improve Newark schools. For over twelve years she served as on the Chapter 1 Advisory Council. Her other involvement include tutoring in Mount Calvary Home After-School Study Program and providing college, career and financial aid counseling to prospective college students.

ALFONSO

Donna a resident of Newark has been actively involved in education for over fifteen years. She holds a B.A. from New York University, a M.S. from Bank Street College, and is a doctoral candidate at Seton Hall University in Supervision and Administration. She has worked as a day care director and a program specialist. Currently filling the administrative role of school principal, Donna has demonstrated her ability to use her administrative/educational skills to facilitate a strong relationship between the Board and the school administration. Her goal is improving the quality of education for Newark students, and she works hard at making it happen.

GEORGE

Eleanor is a lifelong resident of Newark and a product of the Newark School System. She has spent the last eight years serving as director of the child development center of the North Ward Center, Inc. Administrative and finance skills developed during this time have enhanced her leadership role as a current member of the Newark Board of Education where she serves as chairperson of the Finance Committee. Her thorough understanding of Board financial policies make her invaluable as a prospective candidate. Also active with the Boy Scouts and the North Ward Democratic Committee, Eleanor's goal remains developing an educational system second to none.

IVETTE ALFONSO FOR THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

On April 5, 1988, Newark ~~will~~^{will} ~~have~~^{have} had elections for the Board of Education. These elections are of great importance for all residents of Newark, especially those ~~with~~^{with} children ^{in any school} [in public, private, or parochial schools.] ^{These} ~~These~~ ~~are~~^{is} the board of education ~~that~~^{will} ~~shape~~^{shape} the future of Newark's educational system. As Newark approaches the 21st Century with hopes of renewal ~~and~~^(revival) ~~it is~~^{it is} why that our children receive a quality education tailored for the 21st Century. That is why we, as concerned residents of Newark - parents, teachers, homeowners, ^{to} ~~and~~^{to} ~~homeowners~~ - have come together to seek FRIENDS OF IVETTE ALFONSO.

WHO IS IVETTE ALFONSO?

Ivette Alfonso, a long time Newark resident and homeowner, has dedicated her whole adult life to the ~~cause~~^{cause} of quality education for our children. She holds a Bachelor's Degree from New York University; a Master's Degree in Education from York St. College; and is presently a Doctoral Candidate in Education at Seton Hall University. Her academic preparation goes hand in hand with her vast experience in the field of education. Ivette has been Director of United Families Day Care Center in Newark's North Ward; Educational trainer for Head Start faculty at NYU; and is presently Director of Educational Opportunity Fund (EOF) at Essex County College, the largest EOF program in the State. She is also currently President of the Essex County Vocational School Board, being the first Puerto Rican ^{to} ~~appointed~~^{appointed} to this position.

Ivette Alfonso has been a member of the Newark Board of Education for the last three years, compiling a formidable ^{list} ~~list~~ of accomplishments for the children of Newark. Among these accomplishments, the following stand out as shining examples as to why we need Ivette Alfonso ^{at} ~~in~~ the Board of Education.

- All Day Kindergarten: Pushed for the establishment of an All Day Kindergarten during the 1988-89 school year and continues to work so that it becomes a permanent part of the system available to everyone.
- Gifted and Talented Program: When the funding was ended and the program threatened, Alfonso fought to continue it by seeking alternate funds. Today the program is alive and well, and Alfonso hopes it will be expanded to each ward.
- Bilingual Education: Ivette Alfonso has been in the forefront of the efforts to improve Bilingual Education, including the creation of Bilingual Special Education and a City-wide reader for all Bilingual Programs. Alfonso believes that Bilingualism is a gift and a necessity in a city with a large Spanish, Portuguese, and Haitian speaking population.
- Parent-Child Center: Alfonso was in the lead in creating the Parent-Child center at Barringer High School, a program designed to keep teen-age mothers in school.

Through her perseverance and hard work, Ivette Alfonso has demonstrated her deep commitment to our children and our city. On April 5, 1990, lets all work for the education of our children.
